

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
BRENTWOOD LITERARY STROLL SET FOR MAY 7

The Brentwood Literary Stroll will take place on Sunday, May 7 from 1pm to 4pm in downtown Brentwood. There will be 10 authors located in 10 businesses/restaurants. Tickets are $5 and are on sale online at <https://brentwoodlibrary.brownpapertickets.com>. The list of participating authors is below. For more info contact Kim Giuliano at cakgiuliano@gmail.com. This event is presented by Friends of the Brentwood Library and supported by a grant from the City of Brentwood.

Rosie Bank – She is a health coach who has published four books about creating a healthier life in spite of your family history.

Michael Barrington – His experiences traveling the world as a missionary priest and then member of Rotary International have enriched his variety of books.

T.L. Bequette – He is a criminal defense attorney who has written two Joe Turner Mysteries, and the first one received numerous awards.

Mark Clifford – His experiences in the Marine infantry and over 25 years as a Police Officer have enriched his writing as a journalist and fiction author, and he helps survivors of trauma through his podcast.

Jim Hamilton – He is a writer of non-fiction, a memoir, and relationship self-help who strives to help people enhance their lives by improving the way they connect with others.

Carol Jensen – She has taught classes and written several books on the history of Eastern Contra Costa County.

Josephine Mele – Her sense of humor, travel experience, and love of food make her fiction and non-fiction an enjoyable read.

Dana Mentink – She is a national and Publishers Weekly bestselling author of more than 40 mystery and romance novels.

Gail Tsukiyama - She is a bestselling author with seven novels that have earned her many awards and her latest historical novel will be published in June.

Dallas Woodburn – She is an award-winning author of fiction, non-fiction and plays, and host of Thriving Authors Podcast which helps women write and publish books.